

Reverend Norman V. Osborne

Reverend Norman V. Osborne is a native of Michigan. He was born and raised in Saginaw, Michigan. He graduated from Saginaw Public Schools. Reverend Osborne attended Wilberforce University, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

He received a scholarship from the Rockefeller Foundation and attended Yale University Divinity School. He was president of Black Seminarians at Yale and was a Goodman Scholar; he was a recipient of the Alfred E. Beebe Award. He received a Master of Divinity degree from Yale. He attended the doctoral programs of Drew University and the Ecumenical Theological Seminary. He also did post graduate work in psychology at the University of Detroit and the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Reverend Osborne taught at the University of Connecticut for one year.

Reverend Osborne served as assistant pastor of Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, Detroit, MI, and the pastor of Mt. Calvary A. M., E. Church, Detroit, MI, Newman A. M. E. Church, Pontiac, MI, and Bethel A. M. E. Church, Detroit, MI, where he served for 22 years.

He has served on the General Board of the A. M. E. Church, the General Conference Commission A. M. E. Church, Chairman of the Board of Examiners of the Michigan Conference African Methodist Episcopal Church, Dean of the Ministers' Retreat for the Fourth Episcopal District, and Board of Directors of the Ecumenical Theological Seminary.

Reverend Osborne has provided over 58 years in Christian ministry. He is presently serving as Presiding Elder of the "Soaring" South District-Michigan Conference-Fourth Episcopal District- A. M. E. Church, and on the Michigan Conference Board of Trustee.

He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. He was a member at Upsilon Chapter at Wilberforce University, Wilberforce, Ohio and is a chartered member of Omicron Alpha Alpha Chapter in Pontiac, Michigan.

Reverend Osborne is married to Pamela L. Osborne, Esq.; they have a daughter Kimberly Jenkins, M.D., and two granddaughters. Reverend Osborne is the proud father-in-law to Herman Jenkin, Jr. His commitment, dedication, and determination to serve are undergirded by faith in God and the fact that he has been called, anointed and appointed by God to serve this present age.